

Warning Regarding Web Fraud and Phishing

The Rise Fund is managed by TPG Growth, a platform of leading global private investment firm TPG, which has over $74 billion of capital under management across a family of funds and activities in markets around the world.

We are proud of our success. But an unfortunate consequence of our size and global reputation is the misuse of our name, brands and reputation by imposters and frauds publishing fake web sites and engaging in "phishing" scams seeking personal or confidential information.

When communicating with The Rise Fund through digital media, please:

- Confirm you are visiting a website authorized by The Rise Fund or the website of a vendor authorized by The Rise Fund. The Rise Fund's only authorized web sites are posted through the below listed domains. No other web site domains are authorized. No other vendors are authorized by The Rise Fund to communicate (including requesting or receiving) information through web sites.
 - www.tpg.com
 - www.tpgspecialtylending.com
 - www.brooklandscapital.com
- Do not share your password and login ID with anyone, including anyone from The Rise Fund. Certain online environments of The Rise Fund are private, available only to investors through secure login procedures. Apart from allowing you to use your password and login to enter an authorized site, The Rise Fund will never ask you for your password or login information. (If you forget your password or login, we will issue you new ones.)
- Do not communicate or deal with personnel who are not affiliated with an authorized office. All authorized office locations are listed on our website. No other office locations are authorized offices of The Rise Fund.
- Do not send emails to anyone with an address other than authorized The Rise Fund email addresses. The Rise Fund only uses the below listed domains for email addresses. The Rise Fund does not permit our employees and authorized representatives to send or receive work related emails from personal accounts or any other address.
 - @therisefund.com
 - @tpg.com
 - @advisorstpg.com
 - @tarrantmt.com

Imposters use the The Rise Fund name in furtherance of a variety of criminal activities. In particular, beware of scams purportedly affiliated with The Rise Fund that promise extraordinary returns on your investment at little to no risk. These "high-yield investment programs" are frauds and are unfortunately quite common. For more information on high-yield investment programs and how to avoid them, visit the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission webpage at <http://www.sec.gov/answers/highyield.htm>.

For more general guidance on avoiding internet crimes, visit the FBI webpages on common fraud schemes and recent eQscams at http://www.fbi.gov/scamsCsafety/fraud/internet_fraud and <http://www.fbi.gov/scamsCsafety/eCscams>, and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission webpage on avoiding fraud at <http://investor.gov/investingCbasics/avoidingCfraud>.

If you think you have been the victim of internet crime, you may file a complaint with the following government entities:

- The Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3), <http://www.ic3.gov/default.aspx>
- The Federal Trade Commission, <https://www.ftccomplaintassistant.gov/>
- The U.S. Postal Service (for crimes involving U.S. Mail), <https://postalinspectors.uspis.gov/contactus/filecomplaint.aspx>

TPG provides links to these resources for informational purposes only and is not responsible for their content.

If you have any questions about the above, the security of any TPG communication, or have concerns about a web site or email communication that you suspect may be fraudulent, please contact us at info@therisefund.com.